

PLOT

Shreya, a selfless and confident girl in her adolescence, was studying in St. Xavier's School. There she had a friend, Sonali, who lived just in her neighborhood. They both were quite fond of each other, and usually spent the majority of the time together.

Shreya had a healthy relationship with her parents and they supported all of her decisions. However due to the ongoing pandemic they became quite picky about her going out and forbade her from doing so as the number of COVID cases were on the rise.

However, things changed when the schools reopened. One fine day when Shreya and Sonali were walking back from school together, Shreya went out of her way and urged to drop Sonali before going home. This was common practice for them, so Sonali didn't feel anything fishy about it. After dropping Sonali home, Shreya left for hers.

But, in the dusk Sonali got a call from Shreya's mother that she still hadn't reached home!

Finally it is time to dive into the story!!!

